ORDER

At Wilmington, this 27th day of October 2020;

WHEREAS, on June 6, 2020, Plaintiff Lee Morgan, derivatively on behalf of Tilray, Inc. (“Plaintiff”) instituted this action by filing a Verified Stockholder Derivative Complaint (D.I. 1) against Defendants Brendan Kennedy, Michael Auerbach, Rebekah Dopp, Mary Scott Greenwood, Christine St. Clare, and Mark Castaneda and Nominal Defendant Tilray, Inc. (collectively “Defendants”);

WHEREAS, the Court docket indicates that to date no summonses have been issued;

WHEREAS, Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires Plaintiff to serve Defendants within 90 days after the complaint is filed;

WHEREAS, more than 90 days have elapsed since the filing of the complaint;

WHEREAS, there is no indication on the docket that Defendants have been served;

WHEREAS, Rule 4(m) provides:

If a defendant is not served within 90 days after the complaint is filed, the court—on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff—must dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within a specified time. But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, on or before November 5, 2019, Plaintiff shall:

1. File returns of service (or executed waivers of service) indicating that service on each Defendant was made within the 90 days prescribed by Rule 4(m); or
2. Show good cause for (a) the failure to serve Defendants and (b) why the Court should extend the deadline for service (and for how long).

The Honorable Maryellen Noreika
United States District Judge
